Southeast Asian Studies Award

The Graduate School is pleased to announce the Southeast Asian Studies Award. This $1,000 award is established through an endowment from Norman Sundberg, Professor Emeritus, Psychology, and his wife Donna Sundberg. This funding is designed to encourage graduate research about Southeast Asia. Grants may be requested for educational expenses, including tuition supplements, travel, equipment purchase, books and supplies, or other educational needs.

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the Southeast Asian Studies Award, you must meet the following criteria:

- Be a currently registered student in a master’s or doctoral degree program;
- Have Southeast Asia as an area of research interest;
- Have a minimum graduate GPA of 3.75. In the case of students with no graduate GPA, applicants must be able to demonstrate that they maintained an undergraduate GPA of 3.5 or better.

Citizens from any country are encouraged to apply. Priority will be given to support graduate students from Southeast Asia, specifically, students from Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar (Burma), the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Application Process and Deadline

A completed Applicant Information Form must be submitted by email, along with the following items which should be combined into a single PDF. The email should be sent to kmfisher@uoregon.edu with “Graduate School Administered Award” in the subject line, and received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, March 2, 2012.

1. A grant proposal (3 pages maximum) that includes:
   a. A brief description of research project and work,
   b. A statement of interest in Southeast Asia, and
   c. An itemized budget;
2. A curriculum vitae or résumé.

Letters of Recommendation

This award requires two letters of recommendation. These should be emailed directly to kmfisher@uoregon.edu and should include “Graduate School Administered Award” in the subject line. Letters must be received by the deadline stated above.

Award

One grant in the amount of $1,000 will be awarded during Spring 2012.
