

GE Request for Summer Tuition Waiver for _____ year

ABOUT THE WAIVER

The tuition waiver is applicable for up to 16 credits, for classes that will be used to meet degree requirements. Questions about what counts as a degree requirement should be referred to your department.

The waiver does not cover self-support courses, courses with irregular fees, and those courses that are not used towards degree requirements. The student is responsible for paying sixty-five percent of the cost of mandatory fees (incidental fee, health fee, technology fee, etc.). See <http://registrar.uoregon.edu/costs/tuition-fees> for details on the cost of mandatory fees.

ELIGIBILITY

A summer tuition waiver, formerly known as the "Summer Sandwich" tuition waiver, is a benefit extended to students in one of three appointment criteria.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:	ACTION NEEDED:
1. A summer term GE appointment.	No action needed. The tuition waiver will be applied with the appointment.
2. A GE appointment in any two quarters of the preceding academic year (that is, the preceding fall, winter, and spring).	Complete and submit this form. See "About this Request" and "Request Deadline" for details.
3. A fiscal year research GE appointment that includes the summer in question (that is, the dates on the Notice of Appointment are July 1-June 30).	No action needed. The tuition waiver will be applied with the appointment.

ABOUT THIS REQUEST

Only students that are eligible for the tuition waiver based on item 2 above must complete the information below and submit this request to the Graduate School, 170 Susan Campbell Hall. Students that are eligible based on item 1 or 3 above should not complete this form.

REQUEST DEADLINE

Forms received by the first Friday in May will be processed before the start of summer term. Forms may be submitted to the Graduate School no later than September 15.
