

Graduate Student Advisory Board
Application
2017-2018

The Graduate Student Advisory Board (GSAB) is a standing committee of the Graduate School made up of graduate students. The committee's purpose is to facilitate communication between the students and the Graduate School administration with the goal of meeting student needs to a greater extent and enriching the university experience for all graduate students. The Advisory Board generally meets once a month for an hour and a half during the regular school year. Members may be asked to help with some small tasks between meetings and/or asked to participate in Graduate School events during the year.
