Dear UO Graduate Students,

The Graduate School is hosting a series of resilience building workshops to raise awareness on social and cultural challenges.

Attendees will develop metacognitive skills and mindfulness tools for well-being and success.

12-1:30 pm, October 17 — Lokey Education Building ED 276
Tips for Success, Well-Being and Resilience Building

12-1:30 pm, October 24 — Lokey Education Building ED 276
Develop a Positive Self-Image by Addressing Stereotype Threats

12-1:30 pm, October 31 — Lokey Education Building ED 276
Addressing Daily Microaggressions and the Hidden Curriculum

12-1:30 pm, November 7 — EMU Oak Room 240
Overcoming Impostor Syndrome

12-1:30 pm, November 14 — Lokey Education Building ED 276
Mindfulness Tools for Resilience Building from the East and the West

12-1:30 pm, November 21 — Lokey Education Building ED 276
Resilience Building and Goal Setting for Success

If you have any questions, please contact the Graduate School’s Director of Diversity and Inclusion, Padma Akkaraju at padma@uoregon.edu.